

Traumatic Voyage "Shattered Dreams"

A chaotic void overruns me...
In the last painful moment...
Before I open my eyes for the first time...

Before I get born...

For what I get born?

Dark clouds rising above my inner sky...
Life's beginning between ashes and ruins...
In the mist before life's dawn...
The fear awaits me in the light...
The solitude of the afterlife is lost...
A new order crawls upon the horizon...
Through this ancient doorstep I fall... fall...
Into a existence of mental suffocation!

The secret of what's behind all of this...

Is buried unter fals gods!

Shattered dreams beyond the mystery of birth...
Does this life only consists out of ridiculous words...
Intelligence of words... A child lost between the lines...
My destiny sleeps in the depth of the darkness in my mind...
In this labyrinth you've creat for us...
My path will be signed!

From this point of distant view...
Eternity is in my hands... in my mortal hands...
Your descendants will be lost...
Lost in your senseless life-style!!!
