Dad says pay attention in school, and keep it in your pants, Whats going on in your classes dont make me ground your ass

Dad believe me she just drove by, why cant you believe this one lie, nothing compares to the things ive done, but that was just, to much fun

Oh no here comes the frustration and the arguments,
its the same everytime, we learn its the same old line,
Lets get this over with so I can try, one more time,
it doesnt matter though cuz nothings gonna change my life

Dad believe me we were playing twister, you know that I shouldn't have missed her Yes I did use protection, for your little, interjection

Oh no here comes the frustration and the arguments,
its the same everytime, we learn its the same old line,
Lets get this over with so I can try, one more time,
it doesnt matter though cuz nothings gonna change my life

Here we are, once again,
And early bird, an early friend
Catch wisdom is what im hearing, but no ones listening,
Teach me right and ill do wrong, ill never get along,
Teach me right and ill do wrong, ill never get along,

Oh no here comes the frustration and the arguments,
its the same everytime, we learn its the same old line,
Lets get this over with so I can try, one more time,
it doesnt matter though cuz nothings gonna change my life

Change my life
