

To Hate "Key To The Suicide Area"

Face off I walk
Path leads me to the shadows
People run away from me
From a distance they observe me

Iâ€™ll end my existence
Carrying misery with me
I slice to the heart
And feel no pain

Somewhere far away in space
Again I wonder
I search the end of life
I search myself

The fluid of life is running out
I devote to mother earth

Somewhere another me is born
Completely different
Signed in another book of life
Ready for a new beginning

I slice to the heart
And feel no pain
The fluid of life is running out
Key To The Suicide Area
