From Monday last week
Till Saturday tonight
We live in the same Corner
Six walls like in cube
Don't know when day is when night
Nature consist of itself
But we know
How to cover our faces
Just copy me
To start your misery

Delete my code
Delete my side
Program zero without response
Save my emptiness
Save my work
I can't believe what is inside me
Take my thoughts
Take my proud
Beautiful empire lose control
Leave the nation
Leave the sky
Forget technology and all that time
See through the window
Re-write my name
Entering the body
Connect this game

Sleep with love
That not exist
Awake with hate
Without exit

From page to page
And scream in screen
We live in deep program
Beyond ourselves they hide our souls
Suprised by virus
In wait for his blade
Shut down the light
Slow turn amay
Run out of skin

Leave the past
For a new begining
Press the rest

Delete my code
Delete my side
Program zero without response
Save my emptiness
Save my work
I can't believe what is inside me
Take my thoughts
Take my proud
Leave the nation
Leave the sky
Forget technology and all that time
