How can you be, crying all the time.
When you know things ain't so bad.
Where we've not gone, and where we've not been.
Makin' it baby ain't judged by the car you're in.

All is cool, on the western front.
All is cool, on the western front.

Solo

Don't ever say you want, you never ever want.
Don't ever say you want to be open with me.
You say you want to see, your never gonna see.
Until you close your eyes and listen to me.

All is cool, on the western front.
All is cool, on the western front.
