I've come to far to let you take this from me, and I know it's for the best, it wasn't meant to be You can talk behind my back if that's what gets you by.
It's not hard to see the truth if you read between the lines.

My patience has been slipping as our friendship fades
away
And you will hear me say, "Take what's yours, but keep it far from me"
I've learned from my mistakes

Wanted to see how far my dream would take me, While you manipulate your friends and think no one can see Heart will win over pride, how can you be so blind?
It's not hard to see the truth: it was such a waste of time
And you will hear me say, "Take what's yours, but keep
it far from me"
I've learned from my mistakes: People never change, people never change

You ran from all your problems, and you can't deny you've ruined everything with all your lies You almost broke me down, but I'm smarter now than I ever was before You can play your game, but you don't fool me anymore, you don't fool me anymore
