Sometimes I wish that the answers weren't there
Sometimes I wish that she just didn't care
Sometimes I feel like the feeling ain't right
Sometimes I wish I could just sleep tonight

I'm trying to avoid it but I can't hide
I'm lost for the exit locked up here inside and
I'm running from my instincts just getting away
I don't want to hear it, please not today and
I'm so weak
I'm so scared
Of Leaving Her
Of Leaving Her alone

My love for her drowns everyday
I can't get myself to let her down
She acts as if she can't hear what I say
I can't deal with losing what I've found
Oh what I've found

I'm trying to avoid it but I can't hide
I'm lost for the exit locked up here inside and
I'm running from my instincts just getting away
I don't want to hear it, please not today and
I'm so weak
I'm so scared
Of Leaving Her
Of Leaving Her alone

I'm trying to avoid it but I can't hide
I'm lost for the exit locked up here inside and
I'm running from my instincts just getting away
I don't want to hear it, please not today and
I'm so weak
I'm so scared
Of Leaving Her
Of Leaving Her alone
