She's in war with happiness and i can't help but see When will she end all of this because its dragging me down and stealing our hope My fear is crashing in because I can't lose her now She's refusing to feel my love and i cant take it no I cant let this be

When she's crying to me
I could just leave
But I really need to make this work
and there in her eyes
I can't hide
Why can't she see I'm giving my all right now
so love me
or leave me
cause nothing's going to change

I know I love her
But she makes it so hard I always here i'm doing wrong
and I can't take it no I can't let this be

When she's crying to me
I could just leave
and there in her eyes
I can't hide
Why can't she see I'm giving my all
so love me
or leave me
cause nothing's going to change
