Everydays not like another other day
With all that i have here, in you
And everyday's not like any day before
With all that you gave me, gets me off the floor.

Oh, my soul is dry
Oh, Could i Feel you tonight?
Oh, my soul is dry
Oh, Can I?

Everyday you remind me of the time
When nothing else mattered, just you and I.
and Oh, my life's always been so black and white Oh these colors, these colors, they bleed to one

Oh, my soul is dry
Oh, Could i feel you tonight?
Oh my soul is dry
Oh can I?

Maybe I'll begin again
Maybe I'll live again
Maybe I'll begin again
Maybe we will sing again,
sing again
