children keep on dreaming when you wake i will be gone i will vanish with the darkness and i will leave before the dawn i am going to a city by the sea but don't you worry, because i carry you with me

i carry you with me

darling your so pretty like an angel in your sleep i wish i could stay here with you you know i don't want to leave but there are some places that i really need to be but don't you worry now because

i carry you with me

like a haunting melody
i carry you with me
i hear you laugh
i here your cry
i see your smile
i taste your kiss darling maybe someday forever i will stay lord knows that's what i am dreaming of and i'm trying to find away but for now the wind keeps blowin it carries me across the sea but don't worry now, because

i carry you with me
