Ooh, Miss Grace
Satin and perfume and lace
The minute I saw your face
I knew that I loved you

Hey you, listen to me
Iâ€™ve got a lotta truth I want to tell you
I just met a woman
Who turned me upside down

Oh, and rivers turn in their beds
Flowers bloom where she treads
She turns an awful lot of heads
When she comes to town

Ms Grace, when you walk by
Youâ€™re the twinkle in my eye
Thereâ€™s no need to wonder why
Iâ€™ve fallen for you

Ooh, Miss Grace
Satin and perfume and lace
The minute I saw your face
I knew that I loved you

The strangest thing of all to see
Is that this could happen to me
Lady Grace, she said she thinks Iâ€™m fine
Some day Iâ€™ll make her mine, all mine

Ooh, Miss Grace
Satin and perfume and lace
The minute I saw your face
I knew that I loved you

Oh and ooh, Miss Grace
Satin and perfume and lace
The minute I saw your face
I knew that I loved you
