Never knowing where I am
Never seem to understand
Why everything must end
'Cause it's killing me
Suffocating til I find
All the way to live my life
Where everything is fine
'Cause it's killing me
Yeah, it's killing me

I don't wanna be alone
In this place we all call home
Tired of reaching out in vain
Tired of dealing with this
I need something real
Something I feel
Because it's killing me
Slowly growing cold
On my own
I don't wanna be alone

Everything is going numb
Everything I love is gone
I'm in need of Someone
'Cause it's killing me
I don't need a lesson
I need a friend
I must confess I'm near the end
I need to heal
I need to mend
'Cause it's killing me
Yeah it's killing me

I don't wanna be alone
In this place we all call home
Tired of reaching out in vain
Tired of dealing with this
I need something real
Something I feel
Because it's killing me
Slowly growing cold

On my own
I don't wanna be alone

(I don't wanna be alone)
(I don't wanna be alone)
(I don't wanna be alone)

I don't wanna be alone
In this place we all call home
Tired of reaching out in vain
Tired of dealing with this hurt
Something I feel
Slowly growing cold
On my own

I need something real
Something I feel
On my own
