My grandparents immigrated for food not for loot
It ain't cute
When
you ain't got nothing to eat
And got no spiritual foundation under your feet
Now that's some real heat
They had no heat
Now,
that's some real street
They had no street
They had no Christ - They had no peace
But,
then they met him and know they really know peace
Their new worldview broke tradition Their new worldview provoked cultural suspicion
Their new worldview brought even brought division But that same worldview got you listening listen
It was passed down from my parents to me
I got this unorthodox family tree If you get down with the movement you can be fam with me
We making this music to make the people free-Chorus
Unorthodox -
We rock your city blocks
We rock your roof tops
We rock your boondocks
Unorthodox -
We shake your shell tops
We shake your top rock
We shake your boombox
Unorthodox -
We break your old clocks
We break your hard knocks
We break your old locks
Unorthodox -
We break your stereotypes
We shake your stereo right

We let you know Christ rocks!

Grew up a pastor's kid aka a PK and in Philly kid, it's hip-hop every day
It's so easy to stray /with no street lights
I found myself browsing the wrong sites
Those were some long nights Spiritually - some real fights /
Until I stopped fighting and dropped my rights
And got connected - let him edit my profile My space - used to be so vile it's so wild
How his software can clean your hard drive and make you a new child His new community with all the friends I've made Check my music player - all the songs they've played all the comments
saved
My tour dates - all the places I've played It's an unorthodox page cuz of the path he paved cuz of the price he paid
My lifestyle reps Christ cuz of the life he gave-

Chorus

On my journey's people ask my occupation I tell em' I'm a pastor and an artist - there's amazement
True engagement
/ Sometimes I wish I could take they look and frame it
They can't picture a cat that's braided Cuz the old school presentation got em' jaded
But so many people waited (For a ministry out the box)
With no cultural locks
(Crossover Church) - unorthodox Dreadlocks
fades and fitted's
A multi-cultural faith community that's committed
To the great commandment and the great commission

We orthodox in our beliefs, but not in our fishin'Â'
We into Biblical context and not tradition Cuz weÂ're more concerned about your heartÂ's condition
(We got a passion from God) Â- so weÂ're Purpose Driven We look just like you Â- but we found whatÂ's missin'Â'- Chorus
