Oh, you know it breaks my heart to remember, people, how headaches just begin Yeah, you know it breaks my heart to remember, a-how headaches just begin Well, you know I was even lonely for someone to love, then you know she committed herself?

You know some was born to live reckless,
you know some were born to live true
You know some was born to live reckless,
Well, you know some people was born to live a happy life, even if they are sad and blue

Well, you know darlin I don't mind, just anything to be with you
Well, you know darlin I don't mind,
I don't mind anything just to be with you Well, you know we're still havin a good time, even if I'm sad and blue
