"Ounce of Deception"

I feel unreal
I feel this every day
I steal to feel
And I steal your heart away

You're next
And I sense
You're coming in the rain
To see you, me
Believing you can change

An ounce of deception
Get off
An ounce of deception
Get off
An ounce of deception
Kills a pound of pain

She feels, I deal
I fold my cheating hand
No deals, fate sealed
Fully proved myself at last

An ounce of deception
Get off
An ounce of deception
Get off
An ounce of deception
Kills a pound of pain
