Sweet young thing ain't sweet no more
Sweet young thing ain't sweet no more
Mama found her draped over the toilet bowl

Ooh

Mama said, "child, what you done? "
Mama said, "child, what you done? "
"wake up and greet the midday sun"

Sweet young thing ain't sweet no more
Sweet young thing ain't sweet no more
Mama's little pills spilled all over the floor

Ooh
Ooh, ow, ow, ow

Mama can't handle her on her own
Mama can't handle her on her own
She says, "you just wait till your father gets home"
