Feeling so dull in the middle of action Out on the prowl looking for a distraction I found you out looking unaware I knew if you could, you'd take me there

Come on Yeah Oh Take me there Take me there

MotoLyrics

Following you to provoke some reaction Turning around, face to face with satisfaction Living so cold in a world I care You know I'd love you to take me there

That's right Oh Oh Take me there Take me there I can tell from the look on your face You've been shown around a better place I can tell from the look in your eyes That place here just ain't right I can tell from the smile on your lips It must have been one hell of a trip

Take it baby, no I don't care Take me now, just take me there Oh Take me there Oh Take me there Oh Take me there Oh Take me there
