First voice:

It seems suggested that our evolution, I suppose, from the animal kingdom
Into the human kingdom itself was catalyzed, or triggered by our encounter with These hallucinogenics, and Second voice:

Yes, we are an ape with a symbiotic relationship to a mushroom, and that has Given us self reflection, language, religion and all the spectrum of effects
That flow from these things.

First voice again:

And one can only wonder how these hallucinogenics might effect our future
Evolution as well...

Second voice again:

They have brought us to this point, and as we make our relationship to them
Concious, we may be able to take control of our future evolutionary path.

Thrid Voice:

Hallucinogenic chemicals have had an enormous impact on shaping various cultures pre-literate and literate... there is definitely some kind of...
