Dark times are coming
Signs speak of eternal night
There's nothing left to believe in It's the beginning of a millenium black

So come times of locust swarms and boiling sea Come virginborn freaks and ancestors risen from the grave

Chorus - Despair, weak men of god, your time is out Despair, weak christianity, the sand from the glass has poured out
From thunder and lightning He's coming forth
From Hells deepest circle
I blessed by Father Satans hand
The ruler of the forth reich is here

So run christian warrior, or meet your superior Cry righteous, the victory of Evil is true

(Chorus)
(Repeat verse I & II)
(Chorus)
