here where the bitches grow on trees this is where the world was built baran muenchhausen in rubenesque castles ordinary beauties of rubenesque architecture welcome to paradise bay this is bitchery bay - bitchery bay!

skinny sweettolate babies lying on piles of princes of I enter the black forest my seeds dance with flamingos being eaten, beaten - their time is now give it to the best give it to the beast feed the fish, feed the enemy.

I will love you now
'til the very end when you loose your nutraburner-skinny pup! I warned! pulp! and ever time i end up at the bitchery bay!
where the bitches grow on trees
