"On Frostbitten Path Beneath"

Visit "On Frostbitten Path Beneath" on MotoLyrics.com

Upon the mountainside I stand feeling the cold northern wind blowing over the horizon of dead and frozen ground

Before the darkness falls I gaze over the frostbitten chasm and the grimmest glaciers beholding the mountains of ice

The coldest nights are at hand biting winds are blowing harder off the grimmest glaciers leaving me freezing in the heart

On frostbitten path beneath I walk blinded by the snowfall I stride forth in the wintercold stronger than ever before
