I like you
But everytime that I find you
You're lying away I want to Punish you for so long

But you won't
Forget about anybody
As long as they give you money
You'll take it before it's gone

You're hiding away
As the talk of the town
But when you're here today
You're the best time around

You're out there
And crawling away like I care
You're never gonna learn it, I swear
We're not all like you here

You want it
And everything that you can't get
And all your nasty little secrets
A downfall if you please

You're hiding away
As the talk of the town
But when you're here today
You're the best time around

And I will wish upon a star
To fall upon your head
If you should die before I wake
I pray the Lord, your soul will bake

You're hiding away
As the talk of the town
But when you're here today
You're the best time around

You're hiding away
As the talk of the town

But when you're here today
You're the best time around

You'll be the best time around
You'll be the best time around
You'll be the best time around
