Black as the deepest sea, the darkness and the shadows

Breeding as the lights are burned out
And the day turns into night

Trapped in a psychic tomb where reality doesn't exists
Trapped in a cage created by fantasy

Now you're left all alone

All alone in the black
With nothing except for your fear
Can you feel death
Death breathing in your neck
Now you are trapped in the black

Can you feel death
Death breathing in your neck
All this horror
Brings you down to your knees.
