Put behind a wall of lies, slowly falling apart
Bars of anguish bars of grief, keeping the hunger inside
EmotionsÂ...deformed and disturbed
Only awaiting the moment
When the passion is released

You hunger
You want it
You can't control it
It's in your face
Your hungerface
It's in your face you can taste it
You want it bad you know you can reach it
When you get started you can't be stopped
It's like a drug but you don't care
There is no Â....salvation
Swallowed by lust, hunger for more
It's in your veins your heart and soul.
