Do your nights feel incomplete with out our phone calls,
Mine do.

And, do your eyes feel like there burning out of your skull,
Mine do.

And is it just a little routine that there missing so bad.
Or is it the fact that,
We're both losing the best friend that we ever had.

Do your nights feel incomplete with out our phone calls,
Mine do.

And, do your eyes feel like there burning out of your
skull,
Mine do.

And is it just a little routine that there missing so bad.
Or is it the fact that,
We're both losing the best friend that we ever had.

So, are we done cause it's not fun living in a shade of grey.

There is no sun,
And these young lungs seem to only fill half way,
So are we done? we're off and on.
And when we're on I never get to see you anyway.

Are you surprised at how well I've been taking things?
Well think again.
Cause I've been faked out, I can; t make out this shake down is indistinct.
I don't know what your thinking.

And is it just a little routine that there missing so bad.
Or is it the fact that,
We're both losing the best friend that we ever had.

So, are we done cause it's not fun living in a shade of grey.

There is no sun,
And these young lungs seem to only fill half way,
So are we done? we're off and on.

And when we're on I never get to see you anyway.

Nooo ohhh...
Nooooooooooooo.

I'm discomposed that it rose to this point
A crooked face shows your nose out of joint I'll be home in a day finding ways to break down our equation
I will be home in a daze finding ways we broke down.
We broke down.
We broke down.
We broke down.
Said, we broke down.

So, are we done cause it's not fun living in a shade of grey.
There is no sun,
And these young lungs seem to only fill half way,
So are we done? we're off and on.
And when we're on I never get to see you anyway.

We're living in a shade of grey.
Never get to see you anyway.
My lungs will only fill half way
So, are we done.
