

Willet "Wineskin"

Visit "Wineskin" on MotoLyrics.com

If your enemy is hungry, then prepare a feast
And if the city is thirsty, then break the wineskin
Do I even threaten you to move?
Would you change the world, if the world changed you?

Shoot the bullet to the sky
Aim at nothing
Hit it every time

Fight the battle with a gun
Aim at nothing
Hit it every time

Watch her dance across the street
The city lights and beggar's dreams
A homeless man is who I have to fight

Spare change in a dirty, old paper cup
Won't change my life, but could it change yours?
