i was born guilty
and i'll die lonely for the hours have chained me and the years they break me for the past betrayed us and this nation's failed us on the poor man's promise is a lie's that's honest oh lord, this is the worst year of my life
you were born hungry and you'll die angry and if life has failed you leave the cross you're nailed to you belong to no one and you owe nothing there's no golden future just an open wound there
