I - I'm sick of alibis - and all the other lies
I cannot wait to leave this
You - you say you love me through
Whatever that might be
But in the end you failed

As I walked by your dream's a lie, you lost the game
And in the end, and in my hate, no need to say

And when I'm leaving home - Finally on my own
(2000 years from now)
Yes, when I'm leaving home - no letter left at home

You - you've poisoned me with rules
Like all the other fools, who didn't feel to make it
I - I'll break with your whole style
You never heard me while I was trying to awake it

As I walked by your dream's a lie, you lost the game
And in the end, and in my hate, no need to say

And when I'm leaving home - Finally on my own
(2000 years from now)
Yes, when I'm leaving home - no letter left at home
