Keep replaying through the days
And it brought you to this place
You shine your shoes and shave your face
Throw on a suit

You used to be some kind of a joke
And all the debts you've come to know
You wandered down an empty road
And you kept going

What happened to you?
What happened to you?
What happened to you?
What happened to you?

You were standing side by side
Under the moon

Eleven sparrows on your right
A hundred fireflies outside
Your tired eyes are opened wide
And you kept going

What happened to you?
What happened to you?
What happened to you?
What happened to you?

Eleven blackbirds in the sky
A hundred fireflies at night
Your tired eyes are opened wide
What could you do?

Keep replaying through the days
And it brought you to this place
You wandered down an open road
And you kept going

What happened to you?

What happened to you?
What happened to you?
What happened to you?
