Come to me my darling
Take my hand and taste my wine
Oh, isn't it sweet
Can you feel your erotic desires
The flame in your soul

Have an apple from me tree
Its taste will give you eternal life
Eternal life with me, my goddess
Shed your virgin blood on me
Its taste will give me eternal life
Eternal life with you, my goddess

There you stand
Before me, the brightest light
And your smile is as beautiful
As death

And your laugh
My angel of vengeance
Like sun in the night

And you cry
My priestess of darkness
Dressed in sorrow

There you stand
Before me the darkest blackness
And your smile is as beautiful
As death

Chorus:
My goddess
Flame in your soul

My goddess
Dressed in sorrow
My goddess
Immortal queen

Come to me my darling
Take my hand and ride with me

Ride into my darkest realm
To the moon, to the night
And feel the flame in your soul

Forget hypocritical world
And join my eternal empire
My realm of flames, my goddess
Shear the realm with me
And Iâ€™ll give eternal life
Eternal life with me, my goddess

There you stand
Before me, filled with hate
And your hate is as beautiful
As thunder

And your eyes
So crimson red
Like bleeding sky

And your hair
So black
Dressed in melancholy

There you stand
Before me, merciless
As thunder

Chorus
