

Withered Garden "Shadowheart"

Against the light, against Jesus Christ
Towards death itself, all life ends some day
Immortal strength in mortal flesh
Pain is desire that pleasure brings death

Metal soul, rust shining red
Plastic mind, peaceless and deaf
Cyborg nerves, paths of disharmony
Shadowheart, the vault of agony

Against the light, against Jesus Christ
Devastation of the holy dream
Book of lies, faith of fools
Hear the weakness scream
That spiritual sickness
That mental plaque
Flesh will stay unhurt
But mind will fade away

Metal fear, unbreakable, eternal
Plastic love, recycled once more
Cyborg hate, unleashed betrayal
Shadowheart, no love anywhere

Against the light, against Jesus Christ
Pain is desire that pleasure brings death
Towards death itself, all life ends some day
Shadowheart lasts, survives, remains
