just push hope aside and give faith a try
it wears me out
exhausts my eyes
if this is dead
i feel alive

the words that are spoken
and drugs that we're taking day after day i feel like i'm choking on bones that got broken day after day we'll fix things that died and we'll kill to feel alive

exhausts my eyes
if this is dead

should i stand up now?
