

Woke Up Falling "Let Your Halo"

as you bend down
let your halo
touch on my ground
we'll watch it grow
into a weight i can't lift a weight i can't lift

the ghosts you gave
i leave at home
to choke on things
said long ago
under weight i can't lift

if you could lift it for me then i could lift it for you and if you're waiting for me then i'll be waiting for you sooner or later
it hits you in the middle of a dream or a state so far away
