I miss hearing your voice,
All the words that you said to me
But now this empty space fills me up and takes over me
And I can't escape it

It always keeps coming back
The sound of missing you
I hear it all around
The sound of missing you
The silence is so loud
The sound of missing you

I can't break through these walls that are rising in front of me
And the deeper I fall, I realize I never gonna be free
Baby release me

It always keeps coming back
The sound of missing you
I hear it all around
The sound of missing you
The silence is so loud
The sound of missing you

Time goes by and it feels like I'm just going out of my mind
What we had, bring it back now
Cause I'm feeling empty inside
Oh, time goes by and it feels like I'm just going out of my mind
What we had, bring it back now
Cause I'm feeling empty inside

It always keeps coming back
The sound of missing you
I hear it all around
The sound of missing you
The silence is so loud

(Yeah) I miss hearing your voice,
All the words that you said to me (oh I need you)
But now this empty space fills me up and takes over me

(yeaah)
(Baby release me)
I can't break through these walls, they are rising in front of me (it always keeps coming back)
(The sound of missing you)
And the deeper I fall, I realize I never gonna be free (I hear it all around)
(The sound of missing you)
I can't break through these walls, they are rising in front of me (the silence is so loud)
The sound of missing you

The sound of missing you

The sound of missing you
