I've got two wheels on my tricycle and four toes on each foot I've got six days in my week and up with this I will not put I'm a bath without a plug and I'm a handle with no jug I'm a kiss without a hug unless you're near me I've got three strings on my violin and I'm an only twin Something's missing, something's missing,
something's __-__-ing

Well, my cat has only got eight lives, he chases two blind mice
On my birthday, when I get three cheers, they only cheer me twice I'm an oil well with no oil and I'm a plant that has no soil I'm a kettle that won't boil unless you're near me
Two and two make three when I add; you're an orphan, says my dad
Something's missing, something's missing,
something's __-__-ing

But, whenever you come close to me, my life is all complete No longer do I have four toes, no longer two left feet I'm a playground full of swings and I'm an eagle with his wings I'm a nightingale that sings because you're near me Now, my love, I beg you stay 'cause, when you stay, then I can say Nothing's missing, nothing's missing, nothing's mi
