Oh, what is the letter we love?
What sound are we extra fond of?
It's not any trouble
You know it's a "W"
When you hear W-W-W-W

Without this fine letter, you couldn't say "wash"
Or "which," "wax," or "wiggle" - my gosh!
There wouldn't be "wet," "warm," or "walrus" - oh wow!
There wouldn't be "wood," would there now? - uh uh.
Without this great W sound, well "wink" would be "ink"
And "week" would be "eek," don't you see? - of course.
A fine word like "waffle" would turn out just _awful_
Oh "W" is grand as can be...
