paint my face with tears it will make it easier on me you want to live your whole life yet you waste your time with greed your new life is causing me to die cant i have another try?

take your pride
use it on someone else who cares it wont be useful to me just leave me with my broken heart thanks for the useless memories now watch me fall as my last request watch me breathe the fire that burns inside of me watch me kill the silence watch me take my sins and turn them into a path of darkness

i want to close my eyes and destroy my mind
i want to run from my past but you keep coming back take your pills

and lie on the floor choke on your mistakes and beg for forgiveness i'll take care of the rest
