Music & Lyrics: Alexander Sklyankin

With tons of blissful dole
The world inside is soaked
Array of brown-blackness
Of tragedy and madness

Again I'm quite alone
Any senses have gone
Remained devoted memory
Just my mental slavery

Tear please me away
From the felon mental cage
Give me strongest hope & faith
To withstand all this hate

No more grieving times,
No more inner scars
No more offended feelings,
No more empty promises
Firing ground - my soul
To prove new kinds of emotions
To use then rape and throw
In vain was my devotion

Solace heart and pacify
Let wounded body sleep
Weak shadow fly away
For broken fate them weep

Tear please me away
From the felon mental cage
Give me strongest hope & faith
To withstand all this hate

No more grieving times,
No more inner scars
No more offended feelings,
No more empty promises
