Music & Lyrics: Alexander Sklyankin

Guitar solo by Alexander Sklyankin

Warm place like heaven
Spirit placid state
Giving myself up to the feeling of entirety
Infinite joy I resign myself to

Far and unbounded dales
With the magic melodies streaming T hey call me once had won my heart
Releasing me not for a moment anymore

I love to look to dome of heaven
And taste of lovely sight of the clouds
To observe these fantastical steeds
And track their smooth motion
Guitar solo by Sergey Atroshenko

With my stare I'm touching face of day-star
Being charmed by her straight beauty
I am the one who has been loving her
I've shared with her all of my feelings

I'm inspired by nature freshness
Gifted by God with the strong faith
I'm walking one, severity of time forgot
Day by day, so, soon, I shall reach...
... Shall reach...

I'm walking one, severity of time forgot
Day by day, so, soon, I shall reach...
I shall reach...
