Got my bags out on the street gonna hit the road in front of me

wanna know where it leads.

Feel my curiosity time to make all of my tired dreams
a reality.

Now is the moment to step outside and feel how good
it is to be alive.

Wanna find my way don't wanna be afraid and I won't let another day go by cuz I do want to make mistakes and not ask why I'd rather know at least I tried

Just let go and let it flow take a chance won't compromise at least I know I tried.

Make the rules up as I go never knowing where the wind will blow where I'll be tomorrow

Just get in the car and drive I won't worry I'll just take my time and enjoy the ride

Now is the moment to step out side and feel how good
it is to be alive

Wanna find my way don't wanna be afraid and I won't let another day go by

Cuz I do want to make mistakes and not ask why I'd rather know at least I tried

Just let go and let it flow take a chance won't
compromise at least I know I tried.

I won't let no body slow me down (I'll never let no body) or tell me who I am.

I'm only living for the here and now while I can

I do want to make mistakes and not ask why I'd rather

know at least I tried

compromise

I do want to make mistakes and not ask why I'd rather
know at least I tried
Just let go and let it flow take a chance won't compromise at least I know I tried
