Every time I told myself I'd never fall in love again
I'd usually end up doing it anyway 'cause I'm just a fool

Who tries too hard too much
In fact it's such a mess that it's my fault for everything that you do

Tell me baby.
Somethin's comin' for me, it's drivin' me crazy
So tell me, tell me, tell me somethin' new!

Every time I thought that you could save me from myself
It all comes crashing down
The lovely life that we had planned and all those nights
you'd come home,
Now, baby
It all comes crashing down

No sign of remorse on your stupid face.
I just need to get myself out of this awful place.
Cuz everything is just another tragic memory here.
Say it now. Say loud. So you'll make it clear.

Tell me baby.
Somethin's comin' for me, it's drivin' me crazy
So tell me, tell me, tell me somethin' new!

Every time I thought that you could save me from
myself
It all comes crashing down
The lovely life that we had planned and all those nights
you'd come home,
Now, baby
It all comes crashing down

It all comes crashing down [2x]

[Repeat Chorus]
