Life is a question, remaining unanswered
The thoughts that provoke us, kill like a cancer
And no one is safe, cuz these thoughts are so heavy
And attack without warning, whether or not you are ready

F's for fighting
U's for under
C's for criminal intent
K's for killing
E's for evil
D's for the devil that's within

It's all over now.
It's just like you said.
It's all the same cuz of people like you!

Left to lose

Broken and tired and crazy and stupid
To fall into the same trap
The same one that you did
And I can see why you would do to this to me
But on second thought, I'd rather not have animosity

F's for fighting
U's for under
C's for criminal intent
K's for killing
E's for evil
D's for the devil that's within

It's all over now.
It's just like you said.
It's all the same cuz of people like you!
