We're both so hurt
This doesn't work
To this I testify

That the ignorance
Can't bring penance
It cuts me up inside

But I still can't imagine a life
Without you by my side
It's my addiction to affliction
It's just not worth it this time

So, tell me baby
Am I crazy?
Pain is all I got.

Lost and broken
Words unspoken
Pain is all I got.

Emotions can be one thing
But some things lead to another
When lying with you in bed flesh to flesh
There was no other

But how am I supposed to explain
What didn't happen?
The truth to you's no use to you
Upset but still I'm laughin'

So, tell me baby
Am I crazy?
Pain is all I got.

Lost and broken
Words unspoken
Pain is all I got.
