Turn around, shut up, plug in the sound
It's time to get up and slap this one around

Creators of this revolution
Scream the words out til I find a solution

To these never ending questions
Who's fire is fueled by all these suggestions

Enter into the mind of the madness
So blind behind this music because

There is no point to this bullshit
This screaming that's in my...
I cannot take this
This fighting has finally gone too far

Hear me while the music's playing lower
Can't understand it? I'll speak a little slower

Shut the fuck up, listen to me
Cuz there's no repeating

Finally, you're understanding why we're breathing
Why we're screaming, why we're ranting, why yelling
But by the end, you'll know the meaning

There is no point to this bullshit
This screaming that's in my...
I cannot take this
This fighting has finally gone way too far
