Mal 'Kath
Me 'Bal
Llatio 'Jeh
Daneth 'Akar
Jennah 'Okali
These are the names they are given

Welcome to our lives
All lies
Ancient empty streets
Death to kindred

Cold winds rage the lands
Nocturnal cries filled with grief
Carried on darkened clouds
Their wings embrace the sorrow
On oblivious paths they cross the land
Their will enshrined in mist
The ancient trees cast their shadows

On the fallen leaves beneath

Welcome to our lives
All lies
Ancient empty streets
Death to kindred

From the ashes they will rise
To urge them all to take their stand
The womb of darkest breed
Imbues the mortal ground
What you've heard has not been done
Prophecies of darkness bound
Silent whispers in silent mind
Portend the final dawn
