She is fading into the dawn
Her misty veil caressing the elysian fields
Her hands touching the skies
With fingers as delicate as the moon

Her dance draws back into the woods of evergreens

With a whisper and a silent kiss
She will show you the fog-clad path
Dance with her forever
Embrace her hymn and sanguine voice

The Anthem of nightfallen sorrows
The song of lust and death
Her nocturnal breathing
Pulsating in your veins

On endless nights you count the stars

When the moon is full she comes
She lets you watch her fragile movement
The Dancing of the Elven Queen

Embrace her hymn and sanguine voice

The Anthem of nightfallen sorrows
The song of lust and death
Her Nocturnal Breathing
Pulsating in your veins

On endless nights you count the stars
When the moon is full she comes
She lets you watch her fragile movement
The Dancing of the Elven Queen
