The colours of my last dawn are fading
Soon the night will be here
I look at the world with my new eyes
It's hard to describe what I see

Everything has changed, but still it's the same
Inside I feel a hunger and a growing pain

I run from myself in the night
I cry for the victims I bite
But still I'm a vampire, but I don't want to live
In this endless dark

Now I hide in the shadows
When the moon shed it's light
I guess I will live forever
An immortal trapped in time...
Darkness around me I stand here alone
Forever to serve by my masters throne

I run from myself in the night
I cry for the victims I bite
But still I'm a vampire, but I don't want to live
In this endless dark

Darkness around me I stand here alone
Forever to serve by my masters throne

I cry the vampire tears
I scream but nobody hears
My chains last forever but I will not be alone
I will give you my eternal kiss...
I will give you my eternal kiss...
