I let it all in and I let it all out
People don't understand what this is about
Now I know that everything they said was a lie
We feel so alive but every day we die
One by one these days pass by
But not too many people think to ask why
Say goodbye, this can't be for nothin
Nowhere to go but you know they're hidin something
I play the game that I'm meant to fail
But the game is rigged on a larger scale
It took you so long and you got so far
Now you know you're wrong but not who you are You try to find out but you get no where Life's not fair you won't find it here
So, tell me are you ready to jump
To tell the whole world you don't give a fuck

Chorus

I think I scared em away
I think I let them down
You're gonna hate me now you're gonna hate me
I think I gave em a reason never come around
You're gonna hate me now you're gonna hate me

Built like a machine, brought to the scene
Told to make friends and succeed that's not reality Open them up, and see man, lies man cries man, don't you close your eyes man, the truth man, the Proof man, it's right where you stand man, where you stand man
All you crazy mother fuckers saying fucker you crazy
Ever since a baby
Rocking the label right from the cradle I was told a fable
I'm looking at you and your wearing a disguise
You're a product of tradition I can see it in yours
And the people will ask the questions and need the answers
Spreading like disease counter please so we can get somewhere
Who wants to live where, there's no greed where
The visions not clear where everybody's scared there Scared of the mind controlling matter

These pessimistic ways suck don't be flattered
Built to last
You're a punk
Ya, look at them chains
Hiding in the shadows but I'm seeing everything
I'm the outlaw, better run and hide
I'm a loner fuck Bonny, just Clyde, lets ride

I think I scared em away
I think I let them down
You're gonna hate me now you're gonna hate me
I think I gave em a reason never come around
You're gonna hate me now you're gonna hate me

took this path to see the look on their face
We found this sound deep in the ground
And now we gave it a place
You're gonna wanna try
You try to get by, cuz you think you know why
Why that you hate me
Never gonna lie
I went and got by, now i don't care why
Why you still hate me
You can try to help me
But I'll never help you
You can try to get close
But I'll never let you
You can try to stop this
You can try it all
You can try anything, Come on!
And bring it on
I think I scared em away
I think I let them down
Your gonna hate me now you're gonna hate me
I think I gave em a reason never come around
Your gonna hate me now you're gonna hate me
I think I scared em away
I think I let them down
Your gonna hate me now you're gonna hate me
I think I gave em a reason never come around
Your gonna hate me now you're gonna hate me
