More like Cassanova, or Hova
Cuz when im on the mic dude its over
The say im off the chain im more like off the meter
The leader I get these girls wet like Aquafina
Now stop forget all the lies and the rumors
Haters mad cuz im on they mind like a tumor
Fo real I stay on that 808 like Kanye
Game is like BK cause I get it my way
Fast like lightning, flows exciting
Stay on my cake like icing, bite me
I might be the best musician that ever done it
I run it like Usian Bolt im cold like
Ive been buried in the snow with my damn shirt off Done killin these fools DJ cut the verse off

voice over

Whatcha doin man? You cant end a verse like that You got mouth speed, you got crouds to please

Ok my flows to sick somebody call the doctor
Make real music and these others all imposters

Got these rappers cryin got them dreadin like a roster
Rap game master I will never fail
Cuz this game is like school my rhymes are show n tell
These others rappers mute cuz they aint sayin nothin
Im superbud get more action than mclovin
Try to start somethin yall could never catch me
Im ahead up in the race so yall pep could never pass

Get back when I rap fast give you backlash

When I get past never get last like an outcast
Top of my class and im so fast so fast

Im the top of my game like my name Steve Nash Ohhh man whos that Best in the game and they call me C. Mak
I took a break but now im back Spit hot fire even Stevie [Wonder] sees that

voice over

The girls all screamin like when Obama was elected
And if girls are a disease then I must be infected
Ha, affected, never been rejected
Girls say you got flaws but I am perfected Rhymes never sloppy, rappers wanna copy
Style so clean Jay-Z wanna jock me
What does it take for these rappers not to hate
Been stuck to the game like im made of scotch tape
I don't mean to get you mad im just tryna state the truth
Im attackin alla you like im workin for the troops
I don't mean to hurt you dude but im your boss now
All you haters stay back cuz its gonna go down
Man I hop up out the ride anybody know me
I stay high up off this game til im bout to OD
Now call me the Joker but this aint no joke
Now try to battle me and we'll see how it goes

voice over
