I can't believe that we're here once again
Lights on the trees and the cold winter's wind
I just can't hide, the joy that's inside
It's the best day of my life

It's like Christmas in your eyes
From the falling of snowflakes
God never hides
It don't matter November, December, July
It's Christmas, when I look in your eyes
When I look in your eyes

We've kissed by the fire till the sunlight appears
Holding you close I'll remove any fears
In times like these, I fall to my knees
Thanking you for being

An angel of Christmas in disguise
Cause there's always some hope left in your eyes
When the world gets so lonely
You just remind me of Christmas, oh,
When I look in your eyes

It's like Christmas in your eyes
From the falling of snowflakes
God never hides
Even if it's November, December, July
It's Christmas when I look in your eyes

365 days of the year
It's Christmas baby if you are near
And in the moments when we are apart
I remember your eyes how they're meltin' my heart

And it's like Christmas in your eyes
From the falling of snowflakes
God never hides
It don't matter November, December, July
It's Christmas when I look in your eyes
Oh,
When I look in your eyes

Lalala, lalala, lalala, lalala, lala...
